ABOUT THE NEW MEXICO JAZZ FESTIVAL PARTNERS

OUTPOST PERFORMANCE SPACE:

Established in 1988, The Outpost Performance Space is Albuquerque's nonprofit, member supported, community-based Performing Arts Center. While presenting numerous concerts in larger venues, including those of the New Mexico Jazz Festival, Outpost's home is The Space - an intimate and elegant venue located at 210 Yale Blvd SE. Outpost presents more than 100 concerts per year-jazz, experimental, folk & roots, spoken word, teen performance nights and more, and offers jazz & Latin music classes for youth and adults and visual arts exhibits in the Inpost Artspace. Come check us out and visit us at outpostspace.org!

THE LENSIC PERFORMING ARTS CENTER:

The nonprofit Lencic Performing Arts Center owns and maintains a landmark historic theater in the heart of Santa Fe, is the hub for year-round performing arts and culture, and serves the community through affordable artistic programming (including our Lencic Presents series) and groundbreaking educational programs that touch the lives of more than 14,000 students each year. For more information about our presentations and programs, visit lencic.org.

NOB HILL MAINSTREET & THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE'S ROUTE 66 SUMMERFEST:

This free event, presented by the City of Albuquerque, Nob Hill Main Street and the New Mexico Jazz Festival, takes place in Historic Nob Hill and features activities for the whole family, including the Old Route 66 Car Show, Mother Road Art Market, Kids' Zone & Youth Central, food trucks and music on 4 stages throughout Nob Hill.

ABOUT THE NEW MEXICO JAZZ FESTIVAL:

Founded in 2006, The New Mexico Jazz Festival is a collaborative project of the Outpost Performance Space and The Lensic Performing Arts Center in Santa Fe. An exciting destination event, the festival features local as well as world-renowned artists and jazz masters performing at indoor and outdoor venues in both Albuquerque and Santa Fe, including many free events. Over the years, the festival has featured artists ranging from Sonny Rollins and McCoy Tyner to Cassandra Wilson, Pharoah Sanders, Toumani Diabate, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Dianne Reeves, Arrested Development, Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Allen Toussaint, and many more! The NMJF is truly a joint effort! The support we receive from our funders, sponsors, partnerships, volunteers, staff and enthusiastic audiences makes it all happen!
